May County Monthly Services:

These reports were accepted on a motion from Dr. Sperber, seconded by Josephine Higgins, and carried.

May Sanitarian's Report:

The Hilton pool was closed due to improper gate spring. The pool is no longer supervised with lifeguards and the gate did not latch when closing. The Hilton remedied the problem and the pool was reopened. The water was tested and all results were satisfactory. There was discussion about unlicensed dogs. The Board of Health will make a final attempt for homeowners to license their pets. A summons will be issued if not licensed by a certain time. Panaras renovation has not started and no permits have been issued. There was discussion about Old Mill Pool enclosure of the swimming area and Linda Quinn will advise Mayor and Council about the requirements required by the State to enclose a pool for winter swimming.

May Water Report

The report was accepted on a motion from Josephine Higgins, seconded by Dr. Sperber and carried.

May Cash Receipts

The report was accepted on a motion by Christine LaPaglia, seconded by Josephine Higgins, and carried.

The meeting was adjourned on a motion from Dr. Sperber, seconded by Elaine Metlitz, and carried.

Respectfully Submitted,

Lois Frezza, Secretary
